

FACTS

WHAT DOES US Alliance Group “USAG” DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Payment history
- Geolocation data
- Transaction history
- Credit card or debit card
- Checking account information

When you are no longer our consumer, we could continue to share your information as described in this notice.

How?

All financial companies need to share consumers’ personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers’ personal information; the reasons USAG chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

U.S. Alliance Group Inc. "USAG"

What we do*How does USAG protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does USAG collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- use your credit or debit card to transact
- use your checking account to receive funds
- use your credit or debit card to process payments

We also collect your personal information from other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.
